'EXCEPTIONAL NUMBER'

12 Harbor Seniors Pass Scholarship Semifinals

Harbor High's senior class has won an exceptional number of places among the semifinalists of the 1958-59 State Scholarship Program.

Named among the semifinalists are:

Jerry Goodwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Goodwin, Newport Beach; Darian Dayton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dayton, Balboa Island; Jack Bradbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack M. Bradbury, Balboa.

Rose Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Orby Anderson, Costa Mesa; Timothy Driskel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Driskel, Corona del Mar; Clementine Estrada, daughter of Mrs. Mary Ortiz, Costa Mesa; Carole Hyden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hyden, Newport Beach; Richard Elliott, son of Mrs. C. A. Elliott, Newport Beach.

Nancy Michael, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Michael, Corona del Mar; Robert Sangster, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sangster, Newport Beach; and Theodore Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cooper, Jr., Newport Beach.

Students earned their places among the semifinalists with exceptional scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board. Finalists will be selected by the State Scholarship Commission after an assessment of financial need and a study of high school transcripts. Students will be informed before May 1 of placement among the finalists.

In considering an explanation for the fact that such a large number of Harbor High seniors have attained the distinction of placing among the semifinalists this year Max Russell, superintendent of the Newport Harbor Union High School District, gives the following reasons: Harbor High has an interested, alert senior class which is informed about scholarship possibilities and is interested in competition. Secondly, all of these students are accustomed to studying in challenging classes; and a comprehensive, stimulating education, we know, is the best preparation for scholarship competition.

Unusual Number

12 at Harbor Earn Honors

Twelve Harbor High seniors have reached the semi-finals in the 1958-59 State Scholarship program, an "exceptional number to attain the distinction," according to Max Russell, superintendent of Harbor High School.

Earning the places with exceptional scores on the scholastic aptitude test of the College Entrance Examination Board were Jerry Goodwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Goodwin of Newport Beach; Howard Gilstrap, son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Gilstrap of Newport Beach; Darian Dayton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dayton of Balboa Island; Jack Bradbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack M. Bradbury of Balboa.

And, Rose Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Orby Anderson of Costa Mesa; Timothy Driskel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Driskel of Corona del Mar; Clementine Estrada, daughter of Mrs. Mary Ortiz of Costa Mesa; Carole Hyden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hyden of Newport Beach; Richard Elliott, son of Mrs. C. A. Elliott of Newport Beach.

And, Nancy Michael, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Michael of Corona del Mar; Robert Sangster, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sangster of Newport Beach, and Theodore Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cooper Jr. of Newport Beach.

Finalists will now be selected by the State Scholarship Commission, after an assessment of financial need and a study of high school transcripts. Students will be informed before May 1 of placement among the finalists.

Russell gave the following explanation for the fact that such a large number of Harbor High seniors attained the honor, "Harbor High has an interested, alert senior class which is informed about scholarship possibilities and is interested in competition."

"Secondly, all of these students are accustomed to studying in challenging classes, and a comprehensive, stimulating education, we know, is the best preparation for scholarship competition."
